THE COURT: The Court calls United States vs. Jesse William McGraw, 3:09-cr-210-B. Are you Mr. McGraw?

MR. McGRAW: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. McGraw, have you gotten a copy of the indictment against you?

MR. McGRAW: Yes, ma'am, I have.

THE COURT: Have you gotten a chance to read it?

MR. McGRAW: Yes, ma'am, I sure have.

THE COURT: Do you understand what the Government is charging you with in this document?

MR. McGRAW: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You do have the right to have those charges read out loud to you at this time but you may also give up the reading of the indictment. What would you like to do?

MR. McGRAW: I would like to give up the reading of the indictment.

THE COURT: All right. How do you plead to the charges against you, guilty or not guilty?

MR. McGRAW: Not guilty, Your Honor.

THE COURT: A not guilty plea will be entered for you. Your case will be set for trial in front of Judge Boyle. She will issue an order that sets the date for trial

1 and deadlines for motions, responses and pretrial materials.
2 Your attorney will keep you posted about any developments in
3 your case.

4 Do you have any questions about what we've
5 covered here today

6 MR. McGRAW: No, Your Honor, I do not.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Nicholson, anything else the
8 Court should address?

9 MR. NICHOLSON: Not for the defense, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: And Mr. Yanowitch?

11 MR. YANOWITCH: Nothing, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. Good luck to you, sir.

13 You may have a seat. We're adjourned as to this matter.
14 Counsel are excused if they have no further matters before
15 the Court.
